

Ssshhh...

IT'S A SURPRISE

A birthday party is planned and you're invited to show, but don't tell the Birthday Boy because he doesn't know

So if you can make it, please make sure to come early so we can surprise him!

A man with dark hair, wearing a brown blazer over a patterned shirt and khaki pants, sits in a brown leather chair. The background is a vibrant blue with a disco ball at the top center, two spotlights on the left, and a large, tilted image of a cassette tape on the right. The overall theme is celebratory and musical.
